“How to appear organized, even IF you’re not” is perfect for both teachers and studio owners alike. Led by our very own Hedy Perna, the discussion will focus on the need to appear organized from the moment a potential student walks in your door through to the final pickup procedure after the recital.

Hedy Perna is the Co-Director of the Perna Dance Center. Hedy has been a presenter for Rhee Gold’s Project Motivate, DanceLife Teacher Conference, Dance Teacher Conference, and is a contributing writer for Dance Studio Life Magazine. Hedy, also known as the “DanceLadyCEO,” has developed a line of products and tools to aid other Studio Owners in their businesses. As a Past-President and the Current Vice-President of the Associated Dance Teachers of New Jersey, Hedy thoroughly enjoys sharing her expertise with fellow dance professionals.
